

Profesora: Kenise Needham-Farquharson

Grado: 7

Asignatura: Español

Fecha: el 27 de enero de 2025

Duración: 55 minutos

Tema: Países hispanohablantes y nacionalidades (Spanish-Speaking Countries and Nationalities)

Link to other subjects: Geography and History (conexión con geografía e historia)

Materials Needed:

- Blank world maps
- Markers/colored pencils
- Word banks with countries/nationalities
- Slides/poster materials
- Projector or whiteboard

Objetivos:

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

- Identify and locate Spanish-speaking countries on a world map.
- Match nationalities with corresponding countries in Spanish.
- Understand basic historical or cultural facts about selected countries.
- Use nationalities correctly in sentences.

5E Lesson Plan Model + 4Cs

1. Engage (5 minutes)

Hook/Intro Activity:

Project a colorful world map and ask:

“Can you guess how many countries speak Spanish as an official language?”

Show a brief 1-minute video or interactive map of Spanish-speaking countries.

4Cs – Critical Thinking:

Students make predictions and justify answers.

2. Explore (10 minutes)

Activity:

Students are given blank world maps and must work in pairs to:

- Locate and shade the 21 Spanish-speaking countries.
- Match country names with their capitals and corresponding nationality adjectives in Spanish (e.g., México – mexicano/a).

Resources:

Country/nationality list, Spanish word bank, physical/political world map.

4Cs – Collaboration + Communication:

Students work together, ask questions, and compare answers.

3. Explain (15 minutes)

Teacher Input:

- Introduce grammar structure: how nationalities change based on gender and number (mexicano, mexicana, mexicanos, mexicanas).
- Model sample sentences using nationalities:
 - Soy de Argentina. Soy argentino.
 - Ella es de Colombia. Es colombiana.

4Cs – Communication:

Students share their sentences with partners or aloud.

Link to History/Geography:

Share one cultural or historical fact per country (e.g., Argentina – Tango origin, Peru – Incan Empire).

4. Elaborate (15 minutes)

Activity – Group Project:

In small groups, students choose one Spanish-speaking country. They must:

- Create a mini-poster or slide with:
 - Country name, capital, flag
 - Map location
 - One interesting historical or cultural fact
 - A sentence using the correct nationality in Spanish

4Cs – Creativity + Collaboration:

Students express learning through design and cooperative presentation.

5. Evaluate (10 minutes)

Exit Ticket / Assessment:

Students complete a quick quiz:

1. Match 5 countries to correct nationalities.
2. Write one sentence using a nationality in Spanish.
3. Name one historical/cultural fact from today's lesson.

Extension:

Kahoot! or quiz game based on Spanish-speaking countries.

Assessment Methods:

- Observation during activities
- Group mini-project
- Exit ticket quiz

FOLLOW UP LESSON PLAN

Materials Needed:

- Character and country cards
- Map/flags visuals
- Adjective word bank
- Slideshow or images of notable figures
- Rubric or checklist for speaking activity

Focus:

Using ser + nationality, descriptive adjectives, and cultural facts to describe people from Spanish-speaking countries.

Objetivos

By the end of the lesson, students will:

- Use “ser” with nationalities and descriptive adjectives correctly.
- Describe people from Spanish-speaking countries in simple Spanish sentences.
- Recall and apply basic cultural/geographic knowledge.
- Enhance oral communication through speaking practice.

1. Engage (5 minutes)

Warm-Up:

Show 3 photos of famous people from Spanish-speaking countries (e.g., Lionel Messi – Argentina, Frida Kahlo – Mexico, Shakira – Colombia).

Ask:

“¿De dónde es?” and “¿Cómo es?”

Elicit responses: Es de Argentina. Es argentino. Es talentoso.

4Cs – Critical Thinking:

Students infer nationality and traits based on clues.

2. Explore (10 minutes)

Partner Activity:

Give pairs a set of character cards: each card has a name, photo, country, and two facts (e.g., “Ana – Perú – artista y simpática”).

Task:

Students read their cards and describe the person using:

- Nombre, país, nacionalidad, adjetivos
- Ex: Ella es Ana. Es de Perú. Es peruana. Es simpática y creativa.

4Cs – Collaboration + Communication

3. Explain (15 minutes)

Mini-Lesson (Grammar Focus):

- Review ser + nationality
- Adjective agreement (gender & number)
- Model sentences and have students repeat for pronunciation

Example Structures:

- Él es colombiano. Es inteligente.
- Ellos son chilenos. Son deportistas.

Use a visual organizer on the board with pronouns, ser forms, and adjective endings.

4Cs – Communication

4. Elaborate (15 minutes)

Group Speaking Task – “Meet the People” Gallery Walk:

Groups receive country profiles (from different Spanish-speaking countries).

Each group:

- Chooses a “person” from that country (can invent or use real figure)
- Prepares a short oral presentation:
 - Name
 - Country
 - Nationality
 - 2 descriptive traits
 - 1 cultural/geographic fact

Example:

Me llamo Pablo. Soy de Chile. Soy chileno. Soy trabajador y amable. En Chile, hay montañas y desiertos.

Groups rotate and present to each other.

4Cs – Creativity + Communication + Collaboration

5. Evaluate (10 minutes)

Quick Oral Quiz or Exit Slip:

Students answer orally or in writing:

1. ¿De dónde eres tú? ¿Cuál es tu nacionalidad?
2. Describe a famous person in Spanish.
3. Write or say a sentence about a person from a Spanish-speaking country.

Optional Assessment Game:

“¡Adivina quién!” (Guess Who) using nationality and traits.

Assessment:

- Observation of pair/group work
- Oral responses during gallery walk
- Written or spoken exit slips
- Optional: peer/self-assessment checklist
