

Profesora: Kenise Needham-Farquharson

Grado: 7

Asignatura: Español

Fecha: el 1 de mayo de 2025

Duración: 55 minutos

Tema: ¿Quién eres tú?

Materials Needed:

- Vocabulary flashcards
- Station materials (images, sentences, QR codes for audio if tech is available)
- Worksheets/slides for guided practice
- Blank mini-poster templates
- Markers, pencils, scissors
- Exit tickets or small slips of paper

Objetivos: (From Lower-Order to Higher-Order Thinking)

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

1. Recognize and pronounce basic vocabulary related to identity (e.g., name, age, nationality, personality traits).
2. Recall and use key personal identity phrases (e.g., Me llamo, Soy de, Tengo ____ años, Soy amable).
3. Respond accurately to the question “¿Quién eres tú?” using memorized structures.
4. Construct complete sentences to describe themselves and a peer.
5. Create and perform a short dialogue or written profile that introduces themselves and someone else in Spanish.

5E Lesson Structure + 4Cs Integration

1. Engage (5 minutes)

Activity: “Mystery Person” Guessing Game

- Display silhouette images with fun facts in English. Ask, “Who might this be?”
- Transition into Spanish: introduce the key phrase “¿Quién eres tú?”

4C Focus: Critical Thinking

Purpose: Hook students with real-world application and activate prior knowledge of identity concepts.

2. Explore (10 minutes)

Activity: Vocabulary Discovery Station Rotation

- Students rotate through 3 short stations:
 - Station 1: Name/age (e.g., Me llamo..., Tengo ____ años)
 - Station 2: Nationality (e.g., Soy jamaicano/a, Soy canadiense)
 - Station 3: Personality traits (e.g., Soy simpático/a, inteligente, creativo/a)
- Each station has visuals, audio, and example sentences. Students write or draw what they learn.

4C Focus: Collaboration + Communication

Purpose: Scaffold vocabulary in context, using hands-on, multimodal input.

3. Explain (15 minutes)

Teacher-Guided Instruction

- Model sentence structures:
 - ¿Quién eres tú? → Soy estudiante. Me llamo Carla. Soy amable y atlética.
 - Reinforce subject pronouns (yo) and verb forms (soy, me llamo, tengo).
- Use repetition, gestures, and visual aids.

Guided Practice:

- Sentence-matching or fill-in-the-blank activity using a worksheet or slide deck.
- Students practice introducing themselves in pairs using sentence starters.

4C Focus: Communication

Purpose: Move from recognition to controlled language use.

4. Elaborate (15 minutes)

Activity: "Mini Interview & Poster"

- Students pair up to interview each other:

- ¿Cómo te llamas?
- ¿Cuántos años tienes?
- ¿De dónde eres?
- ¿Cómo eres?
- Then, each student creates a mini profile poster of their partner (draw or use a printed template) with 3–4 descriptive sentences in Spanish.

4C Focus: Creativity + Collaboration

Purpose: Apply learning in a personal, expressive, and meaningful way.

5. Evaluate (10 minutes)

Exit Ticket / Performance Check:

- Students answer 3 questions in Spanish:
 1. ¿Cómo te llamas?
 2. ¿De dónde eres?
 3. Escribe una oración que describa tu personalidad.

Extension (optional):

- Short oral presentation of their partner's profile (informal, 30 seconds).

4C Focus: Critical Thinking + Communication

Purpose: Assess comprehension and expression through real use of the language.

Assessment:

- Observation of pair interviews and participation at stations
- Completion of poster with accurate sentence structure
- Oral and written responses on exit ticket
- Use of vocabulary and grammar structures appropriately
