

Profesora: Kenise Needham-Farquharson

Grado: 7

Asignatura: Español

Fecha: el 4 de marzo de 2025

Duración: 55 minutos

Tema: ¿Cómo eres tú?

Materials Needed:

- Flashcards with adjectives
- Visual prompts/photos
- TPR cards (for acting out traits)
- Worksheets/slides
- Poster paper or devices for audio recording

Objetivos

Students will be able to:

1. Recognize and pronounce personality adjectives in Spanish.
2. Construct simple sentences using “ser” + adjectives.
3. Describe themselves and others using appropriate vocabulary.
4. Create a short written or oral self-description in Spanish.

5E + 4Cs Framework with Teaching/Learning Strategies

1. ENGAGE (5 mins)

Strategy: Use a personal hook to connect with students.

- Show a photo of yourself with speech bubbles in Spanish (e.g., Soy simpática. Soy creativa.)
- Ask students: “¿Cómo eres tú? What words might describe you?”

4C Focus: Critical Thinking

Purpose: Activate prior knowledge, spark curiosity

Teacher Role: Stimulator

Student Role: Responder, guesser

2. EXPLORE (10 mins)

Strategy: Vocabulary discovery through visual and peer interaction

- Use illustrated flashcards with personality adjectives (e.g., divertido, inteligente, amable)
- Students rotate in small groups to match adjectives with image cards and discuss meanings
- Use Total Physical Response (TPR) — students act out the adjectives

4C Focus: Collaboration

Purpose: Build understanding of new vocabulary through social learning

Teacher Role: Facilitator

Student Role: Investigator, collaborator

3. EXPLAIN (15 mins)

Strategy: Direct instruction + guided practice

- Teach sentence structure using “ser” + adjectives
 - Yo soy inteligente. Ella es amable.
- Model pronunciation and write sentence frames on the board
- Students complete fill-in-the-blank and matching exercises in pairs

4C Focus: Communication

Purpose: Clarify structure and build oral/written accuracy

Teacher Role: Instructor, model

Student Role: Learner, note-taker, pair-practice

4. ELABORATE (15 mins)

Strategy: Creative production

- Students create a mini “About Me” poster or record a short voice note introducing themselves in Spanish
 - “Hola, me llamo Sofía. Yo soy atlética y creativa. Soy de Jamaica.”
- Option: Interview a classmate and write 2–3 sentences about them

4C Focus: Creativity + Collaboration

Purpose: Apply learning in original, personalized contexts

Teacher Role: Coach, supporter

Student Role: Creator, presenter

5. EVALUATE (10 mins)

Strategy: Formative assessment

- Quick “exit ticket”:
 - Write 2 sentences to describe yourself using “soy” + adjectives
 - Circle adjectives you heard classmates use
- Optional peer feedback or oral check-in with teacher

4C Focus: Critical Thinking + Communication

Purpose: Assess understanding, reflect on learning

Teacher Role: Assessor, observer

Student Role: Reflector, evaluator

Assessment Methods:

- Observation during group work
- Completion of guided tasks
- Poster or voice note (creative output)

Lesson Reflection / Evaluation

The lesson successfully introduced personality adjectives and the structure ser + adjective.

Students engaged well with visual, movement, and creative tasks. However, many showed difficulty with correct verb forms and adjective agreement. A follow-up lesson is needed to reinforce structure, improve accuracy, and provide additional oral and written practice.

Follow-Up Lesson Plan: ¿Cómo eres tú? – Parte 2Profesora: Kenise Needham-Farquharson*Grado: 7*Asignatura: Español*Fecha: el 6 de marzo de 2025*Duración: 55 minutos*Tema: ¿Cómo eres tú?*Objetivos

By the end of this lesson, students will be able to:

1. Correctly conjugate ser and match adjectives for gender and number.
2. Describe themselves and others using 3–5 personality adjectives.
3. Create and present a short oral or written description with appropriate structure.
4. Provide peer feedback using sentence starters in Spanish.

5E + 4Cs Framework with Teaching Strategies1. ENGAGE (5 mins)

Activity: “Guess Who” Warm-Up

- Show silhouette images with 2–3 adjective clues (e.g., Soy graciosa y tímida).
- Students guess who is being described.
- Ask: “¿Cómo eres tú hoy?” to activate thinking.

4C Focus: Critical Thinking

Strategy: Predictive questioning, warm-up game

2. EXPLORE (10 mins)

Activity: “Mix and Match” Challenge

- Students receive cards with subjects (yo, ella, ellos) and cards with adjectives.
- In groups, they match subject + ser + adjective with correct agreement (e.g., Ellas son simpáticas).

- Use whiteboards or chart paper to record sentences.

4C Focus: Collaboration

Strategy: Hands-on matching, group scaffolding, peer correction

3. EXPLAIN (10 mins)

Review Mini-Lesson:

- Brief review of:
 - ser conjugation
 - gender/number agreement with adjectives
- Teacher models common corrections based on last lesson.
- Students complete a short fill-in-the-blank or sentence correction worksheet.

4C Focus: Communication

Strategy: Guided practice, error correction, sentence scaffolding

4. ELABORATE (20 mins)

Activity: “Describe a Friend”

- In pairs, students interview each other and take notes using prompts:
 - ¿Cómo eres tú?
 - ¿Cómo es tu personalidad?
- Then they write a short paragraph (5–6 sentences) about their partner using ser + adjectives.
- Optional: Create a mini poster or voice recording.

4C Focus: Creativity + Communication

Strategy: Peer interviews, real-world application, creative output

5. EVALUATE (10 mins)

Exit Task:

- Students present (or read aloud) 2 sentences about themselves and 2 about their partner.
- Teacher listens for correct ser use, adjective agreement, and fluency.
- Peers give simple feedback using sentence starters like:
 - Muy bien...

- Revisa...

4C Focus: Communication + Critical Thinking

Strategy: Oral performance, peer feedback, teacher observation

 Assessment Methods:

- Observation of group and pair activities
- Accuracy in sentence construction
- Clarity and structure in oral/written descriptions
- Completion of exit task

Reflection on lesson:

Strengths:

- Clear and accessible objectives aligned with beginner-level Spanish.
- Highly engaging use of visuals, TPR, and personal connections.
- Strong integration of the 5E model and 4Cs, especially creativity and communication.
- Differentiated output tasks (poster or voice note) accommodated various learner strengths.
- Effective use of formative assessments through observation and exit tasks.

Weaknesses:

- Students struggled with accurate verb conjugation (ser) and adjective agreement.
- Some needed more oral practice and corrective feedback.
- A follow-up lesson was necessary to reinforce grammar structures and improve fluency.
