

Profesora: Kenise Needham-Farquharson

Grado: 7

Asignatura: Español

Fecha: el 5 de marzo de 2025

Duración: 55 minutos

Tema: ¿Cómo eres tú?

Objetivos

By the end of this lesson, students will be able to:

1. Identify and pronounce at least 5 personality adjectives in Spanish.
2. Use the verb ser with adjectives to describe themselves and others.
3. Construct simple descriptive sentences in oral and written form.

5E Model + Differentiated Activities

1. ENGAGE (5 minutes)

Activity:

- Teacher shows a photo of herself with Spanish labels (e.g., Soy simpática, creativa, y trabajadora.)
- Students guess what the words might mean and relate them to their own personality.

Differentiation:

- Provide English-Spanish matching cards for ELLs or struggling readers.
- Allow verbal responses for students with writing difficulties.

2. EXPLORE (10 minutes)

Activity:

- Students rotate through stations with flashcards, acting out adjectives using TPR (e.g., acting out divertido, tímido, etc.)
- Match Spanish words to pictures or short descriptions.

Differentiation:

- Use visuals with audio for students with reading challenges.
- Include challenge cards with new or less common adjectives for fast finishers.
- Allow students to work with partners or in small groups to build confidence.

3. EXPLAIN (10 minutes)

Activity:

- Mini-lesson on ser + adjective sentence structure (e.g., Yo soy amable, Tú eres gracioso)
- Students complete guided practice with fill-in-the-blanks and sentence sorting.

Differentiation:

- Provide sentence frames or graphic organizers for students who need scaffolding.
- Offer extended writing tasks or sentence expansion prompts (e.g., Soy simpático porque...) for advanced learners.

4. ELABORATE (20 minutes)

Activity:

- Students create a short profile/poster or record a voice note introducing themselves.
- Peer interviews: Ask and answer questions like ¿Cómo eres tú? ¿Cómo es tu amigo/a?

Differentiation:

- Allow choice between writing or voice recording based on student strengths.
- Provide vocabulary support sheets or bilingual dictionaries.
- Pair stronger speakers with less confident peers for modeling.

5. EVALUATE (10 minutes)

Activity:

- Students complete an “exit ticket” with two descriptive sentences about themselves and one about a peer.
- Optional oral presentation of their profile to the class or in small groups.

Differentiation:

- Provide checklist rubrics to guide self-assessment.

- Allow extra time or oral response options for students with IEPs or language processing needs.
- Accept visual alternatives (drawn self-portraits with labels) for students who struggle with writing.

Assessment Tools:

- Observation during TPR and interviews
- Completed worksheets
- Student-created posters or voice notes
- Exit tickets and/or peer feedback

Differentiation Summary Table

Learner Type	Support Provided
Visual learners	Flashcards, images, posters, color-coded text
Auditory learners	Audio pronunciation, peer interviews
ELL / struggling readers	Picture-word matching, sentence frames, TPR
Advanced learners	Bonus vocab, extended tasks, sentence building
Students with writing needs	Oral alternatives, graphic organizers
Social learners	Partner/group tasks, peer interviews

Reflection on lesson:Strengths:

- Clear, achievable objectives aligned with student level.
 - Strong use of the 5E Model to guide engagement and learning.
 - Well-planned differentiation for diverse needs and learning styles.
 - Student-centered activities encouraged speaking, creativity, and interaction.
 - Multiple formative assessment tools used effectively.

Weaknesses:

- Time may have been tight, especially during output-heavy tasks.
- Limited structured focus on pronunciation practice.
- Smooth transitions between stations could be challenging.
- Tech reliance could disrupt flow if not managed.
